

Minister of the Interior
since 06 December 2016

Bruno Le Roux,
born on 2 May 1965,
in Gennevilliers

Electoral Mandates:

- Deputy of Seine-Saint-Denis, 1997-2016.
- President of the Socialist Group in the National Assembly, 2012-2016.
- Vice-President and spokesman of the Socialist Group in the National Assembly, 2007-2012.
- Municipal Councillor of Épinay-sur-Seine, 2001-2008.
- Councillor of the "Plaine Commune" conurbation committee, 1999-2008.
- Mayor of Épinay-sur-Seine, June 1995-March 2001.
- General Councillor of Seine-Saint-Denis, 1992-1997.
- Deputy Mayor of Épinay-sur-Seine, 1989-1995.

Political commitment:

- Spokesman of François Hollande for the election campaign, 2011-2012.
- Manager of the discussions with left-wing partners for the legislative elections, 2012.
- National Secretary of the Socialist Party in charge of elections, 2000-2008.
- Member of the National Council of the Socialist Party (SP), national SP delegate, in charge of police and safety issues, 1994.
- The report he presented named "Safety to ensure social cohesion" was passed unanimously by the National Socialist Party Office. The Government of Lionel Jospin took the main propositions during the Villepinte Symposium, 1997.
- First Secretary of the Socialist Federation of Seine-Saint-Denis, 1990-1992.
- Deputy-Head of Cabinet of Pierre Mauroy, First Secretary of the Socialist Party, 1990-1992.

Committed at an early stage to the Socialist Party, he became in 1989 Deputy in charge of Culture for Gilbert Bonnemaïson, Mayor of Epinay-sur-Seine.

Parliamentary work:

- Rapporteur of the parliamentary mission on the "application of France for the organisation of the World Exhibition 2025", 2014.
- Author of a report on the "competitiveness of the French Air Transport", 2014.
- Author of an information report on "firearm violence and the state of the legislation", which was the root of the Law n°2014-304 passed on 6 March 2012 with regards to the establishment of a modern, simplified and preventive arms control, 2010.
- Rapporteur of the bill on daily safety and of the bill regarding Corsica, 2001.
- Accredited member of the National Ethic and Safety Commission after being rapporteur of the law at the origin of this commission, 2000-2007.
- Bill regarding the purchase and possession of firearms, 1998.
- Participation to parliamentary works aimed to reinforce controls on firearms weapons in our France, 1997.
- Author of a report named "A safety policy as closely as possible to the citizen", transmitted to the Prime Minister, and focusing on the creation of neighbourhood police and the employment of young people in the National Police, 1997.
- Police budget rapporteur, 1997-1998.

Career:

- Management and organisations' strategy consultant and lecturer in the University Paris XIII - Bobigny, 1988-1998.

Other functions:

- President of Léo Lagrange Federation, 2000-dec 2016.
- President of the Forum on cities' management, 2005-2007.
- Colonel of the French Air Force military citizenship reserve.

Education background:

- Former auditor of the Institute for Advanced Studies in Internal Security, IHESI.
- Master thesis in Strategy and Management, University Paris X, in the frame of a doctoral programme made by HEC and ESSEC.
- Master in economics, University Paris XIII.

Publication:

"La Sécurité pour tous ; une exigence de justice" - (Safety for all; a justice requirement) - Editions Balland, 2001.